Immaterium

The Immaterium, also referred to as the Empyrean, the Aether, the Sea of Souls, the Realm of Chaos, Warpspace or most commonly, "the Warp," is an alternate dimension, of which part of the Plains of Rebirth, made of purely psychic energy that echoes and underlies the familiar four dimensions of the material universes.

The Warp was the source of all known psychic abilities and known instances of so-called "sorcery" or "magic" as well as the home dimension of the powerful entities known as the Chaos Gods and their myriad legions of Daemonic servants. In fact, the terms "Chaos" and the "Warp" are often used interchangeably by those aware of their existence within the Imperium of Man, the The Empire, the Alliance of Nations and the Axis of Empires,

Superficially, the Immaterium from the Fop'lla Universe was humanity's solution to the problem of faster-than-light travel. The Warp functions as the medium for FTL interstellar travel, with voidcraft entering it through the use of a Warp-Drive. They then use their own mundane reaction drive systems and the aid of a psychic Navigator to navigate between its flowing currents of psychic energy, as if they were moving through an ocean.

The psychic energy that makes up the Immaterium is believed to be the direct result of the existence of sentience in the universe, in particular the intelligent species of the Fop'lla Milky Way Galaxy. Considered to be a dark reflection of the material universe, the Warp is an ocean of chaotic psychic energy, raw emotion given physical form.

The Immaterium was also rumoured by many cultures and species from , to be the final resting place of the souls of the dead, and therefore can be considered the "underworld" of Fop'lla, Vop'lla, and Xop'lla universes.
